

Every walk has a first step.

For Aspiring Authors, it starts here ...

Judith Briles takes you along on her walk to become a writer ... after she became an author ... harnessing her sheer grit to achieve publishing success.

The Author's Walk is a book you will come back to when you need inspiration, honest advice and insight, a thunderbolt to boost getting your book started or completed, a reminder that you have an author friend who has walked the path multiple times and is there to offer her hand. It is rich with personal anecdotes and nuggets of wisdom for your personal author success.
